

I have been a subscriber to XM for approximately 2 years. I find the service to be tremendously valuable and would not support any legislation that inhibits satellite based radio broadcasting. Keep the playing field level, if the land based broadcasters are threatened by the XM's of the world, that is a good thing, we all need a little competition.